As the undersigned Range Officer, you attest that this individual was present at the Range with you and was firing a firearm in your presence. During this time, nothing came to your attention that would suggest or indicate that this person has violated any of the range rules, safety rules, or license requirements. Also, he/she should be made aware of the proper procedure for opening and closing the Range. If you should see any reason for disqualification, please do not sign this application and contact the club representative. The Training Instructor will be notified.
